The Cruiser Texas Unsatisfactory,

but the Charleston All Right. Washington, November 4.-Theboar appointed by Secretary Tracy to exam-ine the plans upon which the cruiser Texas is being constructed at the Nortolk navy yard has completed its work and will submit a report to the secretary in a will submit a report to the secretary in a few days. It is the opinion of officials about the department that the report will confirm the accuracy of the calculations made in the bureau of construction and repair which show that it constructed according to the present design the Texas will be sixteen inches further under water than the plans contemplated. This would carry a great portion of her armour under water rendertion of her armour under water rendering it a useless burden.

When Secretary Tracy returned to his desk in the may department to-day la found a telegram from the Union Iro Works Company, of San Franciso, build ers of the Charleston, in response to hi telegram of Saturday Just. In this mes sage the iron works say they believe the could show 7,400 hors, power with re-duced propeller on another trial tri-of the vessel, but in order to avoid delay of the vessel, but in order to avoid our and trouble, they will withdraw the demand for a new trial and leave t matter entirely in the hands of the Se retary. Unpon this Secretary Tracy of retary. Unpon this Secretary Tracy or dered the acceptance of the Charleston the question of penalty to be considered at the final settlement with the contract

Editor Citizen —In your last issu-yesterday morning appeared, "an amende not a confidence man, but an honorabl gentleman." This was brought abou-by a notice from me-to-our people tha such scoundrels were here, as mentione in your issue a day previous. I am her yet. THE CITIZEN did right in making local notice of what I told it, and wit the lights before it, it did right in sayin what Mr. Wiley stated to be true. We a sometimes differ. The case was this, a sworn to. Ask Mr. A. T. Sommey, justice of the pence, for facts. The news again had not been with Mr. Wiley all do as Wiley swore, but from Asheville to Alexander's. Mr. Frishee, the man who was robbed, swore that the defendant was the man. Mr. Morton, Mr. Low and Mr. Ramsey swore that the de-iendant resembled the man, and Captain Chase and Mr. Wiley swore that in their opinion, the news agent could not be the man. They did say, that they had known him for two months, and had noticed nothing wrong in him. I regret to have to make this statement of the case, but self-respect demands it. I am sorry that the news agent resembles another man its news agent resembles another man, if such be the case; and I am sorry that Mr. Wiley champions a party's cause whom he has only known for two months alternately. This is all I shall say about the matter.

Cut His Throat on the Train. RALEIGH, N. C., November 6.—Soot after the passenger train left Greenshors this morning, the conductor discovered; man in one end of the second class car bleeding profusely, and apparently in a dying condition. He had out his throng from ear to car with a ratio. The man proved to be Thomas fourett, a wel-known merchant of Greenshayo, who re-cently failed in business. He said no one cared for him, and he had decided to em his life. At Burlington be was removed from the train in a hopeless condition
